THE BIG WEEKLY QUESTION...

CLASS 4: Thank you to everyone who came to our War Time Remembrance Tea today. It was a wonderful event to showcase all of the amazing work the children have been doing over the last half term. Next week we will be completing our "My Hero" non-chronological reports and our new writing theme will focus on anti-bullying. In Maths we are rounding off our work on multiplication and division and moving on to look at statistics. In Topic, we will start our new topic : the Anglo-Saxons.

CLASS 3:

Next week we will be starting our new topic: 'Volcanoes and Earthquakes'. On Monday, we will be starting to make our model volcanoes to explode in Science on Thursday! The children will need a 2L bottle, some newspaper, sticky tape and some cardboard to place the volcano on. We will be writing instructions for 'How to make a volcano' in English. Our class novel is 'Escape from Pompeii' from the survivor series by Jim Eldridge along with 'Escape from Pompeii' by Christina Balit. In Maths, we will be using written methods to divide. Here is a list of useful apps that we use in class that you may wish to download for home use:
SpellFix Y3-4 Wordlist
Easy Spelling
Base Ten Math
Spelling Free
DK Times Tables
Set the Clock
Tell the time

CLASS 2: This week we have been looking at heroes in RE. The children have completed some wonderful writing about their own heroes and are now able to differentiate between a real hero and a super hero. In Maths we have been looking at money and using the four operations to calculate amounts. The children have used their knowledge of the four operations to answer one and two step word problems.

We have started preparations for the Christmas performance this week and the children have been showing off their acting skills. This has been great fun and I am certain that the children will be showing off at home. PE is on Monday and Friday in Class 2. PE kit should be brought in on Monday and will be returned on Friday.

EARLY YEARS:

This week the children have enjoyed learning about remembrance and the reason behind why we wear poppies. The children have made poppies, made cards for the soldiers, and talked about what a hero is and who is their hero. The children have said some lovely things during discussions and have thought deeply about what the soldiers have done for us. I was very proud that they could do this at such a young age! Some of their work will be displayed at Friday's Remembrance Service. Next week we will be focusing on the story 'Whatever Next' by Jill Murphy. We will be looking at space and what we would take with us if we were to go to space.

HEADTEACHER AWARDS: (Y6) Demi Fortune (Y5) Charlotte Shield (Y4) Ollie Graham (Y3) Riley Jackson (Y2) Emily Clarke (Y1) Faith Wrightson (Rec) Theo Holmes
